

Lauren Magee

124 Hardy Circle
Pleasant Hill, CA 94523
Class of 2015

Major: Biomathematics

Minor: Psychology

lmagee1@lion.lmu.edu

925-658-2152 (cell)

University Education at Loyola Marymount University

Fluent in Latex Programming and analysis through programs such as Tinkerplots, excel, and graphing calculators.

Math Club member

CLC member (Christian Life Community)

University Research and Employment

Research Assistant to Dr. Anna Bargagliotti for Project SET, Fall 2011 - current Project SET is an NSF funded project aimed at developing teacher level materials in statistics to better facilitate student learning particularly at the high school level.

Rains Research Grant Recipient- 2012, 2013

Summer Undergraduate Research Program Grant Recipient- Summer 2012

USCOTS (United States Conference On Teaching Statistics) 2013

Participant

Office Assistant and Liaison Between Students and Administration, Seaver College Dean's Office, Fall 2011 – current

HHMI (Howard Hughes Medical Institute) Phage Discovery Lab for LMU

Freshman, Fall 2011 to Spring 2012

LMU Undergraduate Research Symposium Presenter Spring 2012 and Spring 2013

West Coast Biological Sciences Undergraduate Research Conference Presenter- Spring 2012

University Community Service (100+ hours sophomore year)

MESA (McCarthy Experience in Service and Action) Service-Based Community--LMU, Fall 2012 to Spring 2013

Guadeloupe Homeless Project &

Dolores Mission After School Program

(Service programs to children and homeless men in downtown LA, creating a community base to where they feel supported and connected to their environment)

El Espejo, Lennox Middle School mentoring program in Inglewood, CA

Member of Gryphon Circle Service Organization and the Gryphon Circle Social Justice Committee, LMU

(This service organization focuses on reforming secondary education to accommodate children from all types of demographics and with all types of learning styles)

Member of Underwings Praxis Service Club

(A service club committed to being a positive presence in the Dolores Mission and Guadeloupe Homeless Project community)

High School Education, Awards and Community Service

College Park High School, June 2011

AP Scholar (Psychology, Statistics, English)

Golden State Seal Merit Diploma (achieving outstanding scores on STAR testing over entire high school career)

California Scholarship Foundation (CSF) member 11th and 12th grade
Teacher's Assistant—French IV

French club treasurer—11th grade

French club president—12th grade

Writing Club Member—9th and 10th grade

* J.C. Heywood College Scholarship from Move Productions

Teaching Assistant, Summer 2010—Mt. Diablo School District

Worked with special needs elementary students in all subjects including English, math and history.

Outdoor Education Counselor, 11th grade—Sempervirens Outdoor Educational School

Served as counselor for an away outdoor education camp for 5th graders.

Vacation Bible Camp Counselor, Summer 2010, 2011—Christ The King in Pleasant Hill

Served as the camp counselor for third graders.

Kitchen Volunteer, Summer 2009—Loaves and Fishes Soup Kitchen, Pittsburg

Summer volunteer for the satellite soup kitchen that made lunch every day for 5 locations that served a total of 600 people.