

Honor Code Agreement

By signing this agreement, I am attesting that:

- I have carefully read and I understand the LMU Honor Code and Process as set forth in the Loyola Marymount University Undergraduate Bulletin.
- I affirm that I will act with honesty and integrity at all times, especially in my academic work. I understand that academic honesty respects the intellectual and creative work of others, flows from dedication to and pride in performing my own best work, and is essential if true learning is to take place.
- I understand that examples of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to, the following: all acts of cheating on assignments or examinations, or facilitating other students' cheating; plagiarism; fabrication of data, including the use of false citations; improper use of non-print media; unauthorized access to computer accounts or files or other privileged information; and improper use of internet sites and resources. In addition, I understand that attempting to gain extra credit for a seminar that I did not attend or assisting another student to do this are examples of academic dishonesty and will be considered a violation of the Honor Code.
- I have carefully read understand the additional resources provided by the instructors: "Davidson College Department of Biology Statement on Plagiarism," "Guidelines for Literature Citations in a Scientific Paper handout," "LRC presentation on plagiarism," and "Notes on plagiarism from an electrical engineering & computer science perspective."
- I understand that if I violate the Honor Code, the instructor will determine that the violation is intentional if a Student who has carefully read the Honor Code should have understood that his/her action violated the Honor Code and standards of academic honesty.
- I understand that if the instructor determines that I have intentionally violated the Honor Code, the instructor may fail me on the assignment or exam or fail me in the course.
