

Academic Honesty Agreement

By signing this agreement, I am attesting that:

- I have carefully read and I understand the LMU Academic Honesty Policy and Procedures found at: <https://academics.lmu.edu/media/lmuacademics/academichonesty/documents/Academic-Honesty-Policy-2021.pdf>, excerpts of which appear below. I have also read these additional resources:
 - Guidelines for Literature Citations in a Scientific Paper handout
 - Davidson College Department of Biology Guidelines for Using and Citing Sources <http://www.bio.davidson.edu/dept/plagiarism.html>
 - BIOL 367 LibGuide: <https://libguides.lmu.edu/BIOL367>
 - Notes on plagiarism from an electrical engineering and computer science perspective
- I affirm that I will act with honesty and integrity at all times, especially in my academic work. I understand that academic honesty requires that all members of the LMU community act with integrity, respect their own intellectual and creative work as well as that of others, acknowledge sources consistently and completely, act honestly during exams and on assignments, and report results accurately.
- I understand that examples of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to, the following: all acts of cheating on assignments or examinations, or facilitating other students' cheating; plagiarism; fabrication of data, including the use of false citations; improper use of non-print media; unauthorized access to computer accounts or files or other privileged information; and improper use of internet sites and resources. I will not submit assignment or paper prompts to CourseHero, Chegg, online artificial intelligence tools, or any other such website; answers or papers derived from such sites are considered to be a direct violation of the Academic Honesty policy. In addition, I understand that attempting to gain extra credit for a seminar that I did not attend or assisting another student to do this are examples of academic dishonesty and will be considered a violation of the Academic Honesty Policy.
- I understand that if I commit an act of academic dishonesty, the instructor will follow the procedures as set out in the LMU Academic Honesty Policy and Procedures and that a record of the violation will be filed with the Provost's office.
- Depending on the severity of the violation, the instructor will impose sanctions. The minimum penalty for an instance of academic dishonesty in this course, even on a 1-point assignment or extra credit assignment, is a one-letter grade penalty in the course and a zero on the assignment. The maximum instructor-imposed sanction is a failing grade in the course. If the instructor imposes a failing grade sanction in the course, a failing grade will appear on the transcript even in the case of subsequent withdrawal.
